

AGED MAN KILLED IN AN ACCIDENT

David Hinkle, of Kurtz, Met with Horrible Death When Wagon
Overturned.

WAS SIXTY-FIVE YEARS OF AGE

Body Was Found This Afternoon and it is Believed He Was Instantly Killed.

David Hinkle, of Kurtz, was killed this afternoon in an accident which occurred near his home while he was hauling a load of fodder. He was driving a single horse, and riding on top of the fodder, when, in some manner, the wagon was overturned and he was struck across the back by the boom. Every rib was torn from his backbone and it is thought that his death was instantaneous.

No one saw the accident, but it is believed that it occurred shortly after one o'clock, as his body was found about one hour later. His wife has been dead for about twenty years, and he had made his home with his daughter.

Mr. Hinkle was sixty-five years of age, and is survived by two children. One son, Lloyd, lives in Colorado.

Elected Vice President.

In the election of officers by the Farmers' State Congress at Indianapolis this week, W. H. Newsom of Elizabethtown was named for vice-president. He is a township trustee and in a speech before the Congress declared the accounting law is too expensive and is defective. He believed the number of field men should be reduced and more care be taken in their selection and salaries reduced. He did not consider the audit of books by the advisory board generally of great value.

POPULATION OF SEYMOUR 6305

Evidently Serious Mistake In Census of the City as Given by Official Report.

MUCH LOWER THAN EXPECTED

Local Census Taken in 1907 Showed the Population of Seymour to be 7090.

The population of Seymour according to the thirteenth census is 6305, this report having been received here this afternoon from E. Dana Durand, census director. The report of the census department places the population of the city much lower than was anticipated, and there is no question but that there has been a mistake. The twelfth census gave the city a population of 6445 and the eleventh census a population of 5337.

Shortly after the enumerators completed their work here, it became known that many people had not been counted, and there was some talk of asking for a recount. At that time, it will be remembered, it was reported that one rooming house where a large number of railroad men made their home had not been enumerated at all, and there were any number of instances where two or three members of the family were not counted. It is fair to say that the population as given by the department does not show the true census of the city.

In 1907 a local directory was compiled and at that time there was a total population of over seven thousand. Since that time hundreds of people have moved to the city, yet when the census returns are made the population is below that of ten years ago.

During the past ten years hundreds of new homes have been erected and several additions have been built to the city, yet there is hardly a vacant house to be had and many families who have moved here are boarding until they can find a suitable residence. This would be conclusive evidence that the population would be larger than it was ten years ago.

FILE TRANSCRIPT IN CONTEST CASE

Question of Recount of Ballots For Sheriff's Office Before Judge
Shea.

OTHER CIRCUIT COURT NEWS

Three New Divorce Cases Have Been Filed, and A Number of Others Decided.

The transcript in the contest case for the office of county sheriff filed by William Goecker against Jerry Mc-Osker has been filed with the clerk of the circuit court, and the question of a recount is now before Judge Shea. The case was tried in the county commissioners' court several days ago, but that court decided that the complaint should have been filed in the circuit court and therefore they had no jurisdiction in the proceedings. The attorneys for Goecker are of the opinion that the recount law, which provided that the complaint should be filed in the circuit court, was repealed by the contest law enacted in 1909. By the latter law, they assert, the proceedings must be filed before the county commissioners.

Three new divorce cases have been filed in the circuit court, and all of them will probably be tried before the close of the term. John Matheny has asked for a divorce from his wife, Alice Matheny. The parties were married November 8th, 1903 and separated August 3, 1907. The plaintiff charges the defendant with cursing him and calling him vile names, that she said she hated him and was tired of living with him and ordered him to leave home.

Mary Belle Jamison is the plaintiff in a divorce case filed against her husband, John Jamison.

They were married Sept. 14, 1907, and separated February 16, 1910. In her complaint the plaintiff says that the defendant left her on the last mentioned date without any means of support for herself and child; and that during their married life he squandered his money for intoxicating liquors and was in the habit of coming home intoxicated. She also asks the custody of their only child, a daughter.

Lydia Hanner also desires a divorce from her husband, James Hanner. The plaintiff charges the defendant with cruel and inhuman treatment toward her; that when in a rage he would heap vile epithets, treated her in an insolent manner by keeping her in ignorance of his business transactions; that he threatened her life with a big butcher knife and threatened to strike her; she also says that he refused to allow her to visit her mother, who lived only a hundred yards away. She further says that because the defendant knew that it harassed her and put her in a nervous state of anxiety, he would threaten to kill her brother, George Spray, whom he intensely hated and while doing so would get out and handle his revolver and cartridges, snapping and loading his pistol, making demonstrations how he would shoot and kill her brother. She asks for the custody of their two children.

London, Dec. 22.—Accompanied by air helmet parties, a government inspector explored the entrances to five sections of the Pretoria pit, near Bolton, where the awful explosion occurred yesterday, and found that all of the sections had been swept by fire. The bodies seen had evidently been subjected to a terrific force. Some of the dead had been burned and others suffocated. The inspector has issued a statement that there is no reasonable hope that any of the entombed miners are living. They number approximately 340. Mine officials declared that the explosion was caused by an ignition of accumulated firedamp from an open lamp worn on a miner's cap.

Assistant Manager Rushton perished while leading one of the rescuing parties. He failed to provide himself with a safety helmet and succumbed to the noxious gases. After Rushton's death all the rescuers put on helmets.

Cut Off by Fall of Roof.

Before the fire was in full control of the mine, one rescue party of fifteen experienced miners was cut off by a fall of the pit roof, caused by an explosion of gas. The fire ate rapidly through the fallen coal, cutting off their escape. By almost superhuman endeavors eight of the party escaped, bearing with them the other seven who had been overcome. As soon as they were revived they pleaded to be allowed to enter again.

Fire broke out in the mine following the explosion and prevented rescue work. Vast volumes of smoke mingled with the fatal firedamp. Great billows of fire spurted from the pit hundreds of feet in the air, and pockets of gas exploded from time to time with tremendous detonations. Within a few minutes after the first occurred the mouth of the mine was surrounded with relatives and friends of the miners. When these learned that the mine officials were considering sealing the mouth of the pit rioting broke out.

Had to Call Soldiers.

The mine officials were alarmed by the infuriated mobs and a detachment of soldiers was summoned to protect the representatives of the owners and to prevent the men in the crowds from rushing to their doom in the shaft in the futile hope of rescuing some of the imprisoned miners. The local authorities were powerless to restore order.

The municipal authorities deputized armed guards to patrol the mine company's property.

Members of the early rescue parties, which were able to penetrate a short distance into the shaft before the fire passed beyond control, declared that more than 250 miners were undoubtedly dead, as they were working in a section of the mine completely cut off from falls of slate and a seething furnace of flame. Even if they escaped death from the raging holocaust the rescuers declared that the poisonous fumes and lack of fresh air would kill them. The machinery connecting the shaft with the fans was disconnected by the force of the explosion.

Take Care.

When the kidneys are effected, life is in danger. Read what Foley Kidney Pills have done for your neighbor. Mr. Emmet Jackson, Bloomington, Ind., says: "For the past few years I have worked over turpentine which I think is the cause of my kidney trouble. It started with an acute pain in the back over the kidneys. I felt all out of sorts and was annoyed by an irregularity of the kidneys accompanied by a scalding and burning sensation. There was a continual tenderness in the loins and a general feeling of weakness that unfitted me for my daily work. My eyes began to bother me and I had terrible headaches with dizzy spells. At this time I commenced taking Foley Kidney Pills and soon improved under the treatment. I kept it up steadily and now thanks to Foley Kidney Pills am well and strong again."

Stone Columns Arrive.

The stone columns for the front of the court house arrived Tuesday and are being placed in position. These columns are three feet in diameter at the base. They come in section lengths of a little over three feet. There will be four columns, which, with their base and cap stones, will reach to a height of about twenty-seven feet, not including the square base upon which the columns rest. They are of the Ionic style of architecture, and when completed will give the building a fine and imposing appearance.—Brownstown Banner.

Pellens Drug Store guarantees ZEMO, a clean liquid preparation for external use to rid the skin of the germ life that causes the trouble? The county superintendents Association has prepared the draft for a proposed teachers pension law. It provides that all teachers in the state shall pay 1 per cent of their annual salary into a pension fund to be deposited with the treasurer of state.

Upon retirement at 55, or after having taught for thirty-five years, each teacher would be paid an annuity of 1 per cent of the annual salary at the time of retirement for each year taught. The minimum pension would be $250 a year.

A Simple Safeguard For Mothers

Mrs. D. Gilkeson, 326 Ingles Ave., Youngstown, Ohio, gained wisdom by experience. "My little girl had a severe cold and coughed almost continuously. My sister recommended Foley's Honey and Tar. The first dose I gave her relieved the inflammation in her throat and after using only one bottle her throat and lungs were entirely free from inflammation. Since then I always keep a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar in the house. Accept no substitutes. A. J. Pellens.

When Chamberlain's Liniment is applied a cure may be effected in three or four days. This liniment is one of the best and most remarkable preparations in use. Sold by Andrews-Schwenk Drug Co.

L. L. NEWKIRK IMPROVING

Unfortunate Brakeman Has Some Chance for Recovery.

L. L. Newkirk, the Monon brakeman, who met with an accident as his train was leaving Orleans Monday afternoon, is reported some better and it is thought he has a good chance for recovery. He will be removed to his home in Sparksville Saturday.

When he regained consciousness he told that he was attempting to get on the front end of the caboose when he stumbled and fell, the wheels of the caboose passing over the palm of his left hand. He appears to have fallen on his face against the end of a tie and the boxing of the car probably struck him on the side of the head. He was so badly hurt that when he was given a drink of water part of it came out his ears. The physicians at first hoped they might save part of his hand and the thumb, but it was found necessary to take the hand off above the wrist.

His mother and a brother live at Sparksville and when notified Monday afternoon of the accident, his brother got out his automobile and with his mother drove through Mitchell to Orleans, a distance of twenty-seven miles, over rough roads, in exactly one hour.

Newkirk carried an insurance policy which will pay him $2,000 for the loss of his hand. A few weeks ago he took out a second policy which will pay him $1,000 for the loss of his hand, and $15 a week until he recovers from his injuries.

If you are suffering from biliousness, constipation, indigestion, chronic headache, invest one cent in a postal card, send to Chamberlain Medicine Co., Des Moines, Iowa, with your name and address plainly on the back, and they will forward you a free sample of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. WANT MORE PAY County Superintendents Desire a Salary Instead of Per Diem.

As a result of action taken by the State Association of County Superintendents of Schools, which held its semi-annual session at the State House Wednesday, a bill is to be introduced at the coming session of the General Assembly which, it is said, will have as its main proviso an increase in the salaries of the superintendents.

In a talk on "Needed School Legislation" at the afternoon session, J. C. Webb, superintendent of the Johnson county schools, urged the passage of a law which will place the office of county superintendent on a salary basis, instead of on a per diem system, as is now in vogue. Mr. Webb also made it clear that in his opinion the total amount paid superintendents should be considerably larger than the aggregate which they now receive. He said that county superintendents of Indiana are underpaid, and cited instances from a number of states, among which were Illinois, Maryland and Alabama, in which the heads of the county schools receive larger salaries than are paid in Indiana.

At a closed executive session later in the afternoon the salary proposal was placed in the hands of the legislative committee and, it is said, will be incorporated in a bill. Among other legislative measures which the superintendents wish enacted are compulsory medical examination of all students in all the schools and a provision for funds which may be used to pay teachers their regular salaries while they are visiting other schools for purposes of study.

TAFT'S ADMINISTRATION.

President Taft's Administration is rapidly gaining in public favor, and his ability as an executive officer is no longer questioned. The spirit of absolute fairness and impartiality which he has manifested in deciding important governmental questions which have arisen during the past few weeks, has satisfied the entire nation that he is earnest and sincere, and has but one end in view, that of a better nation. Those who for a time were prone to regard him as too conservative, recognize their mistake. They see in him the sterling qualities of a deliberate and safe leader, who is assured that he is right before his decision is made.

A Washington correspondent recently said in speaking of the present administration.

"The impress of the President's judicial mind is becoming more and more stamped upon his administration. He is an old-fashioned President. He is an economical President. He sees things from every angle and, with calm and sober poise, works out conclusions that are sound and in conformity with the best public policy. He never goes off on a tangent. He is making the White House a place where peace abides and where every individual and every interest has a day in court."

Since the president became the leader of the nation his position has been extremely difficult. It has been a time when the people desired decisive and even radical moves, which in the minds of the careful business men would have brought disaster. The president realized this and endeavored to resolve upon the best manner in meeting the issues. His wise and judicious course has resulted in a satisfactory settlement of all differences, and in their president the people recognize a safe and able leader.

If there was ever a doubt about President Taft being fair, that doubt was dispelled by his judicial appointments. For the first a democrat was selected as chief justice of the United States Supreme Court, but precedent meant nothing to him so long as the best men were selected.

Regarding these selections the Washington correspondent said:

"The President's judicial appointments have had a most remarkably pleasing effect, and many persons marvel that he has been able to select judges with such happy discrimination. Ten days ago it looked as if a big storm were brewing over the judicial appointments. The railroad interests were active trying to get friends of theirs placed on the high court benches. Some of the Senate progressives were indiscreet enough to threaten to oppose confirmation before the appointments were announced or even decided upon in the President's mind. When the appointments were made public the progressives had no word of criticism.

"If they had taken a magnifying glass they could not have discovered in that list of appointments any place where the railroads had got an advantage. Of the five appointments President Taft has made to the Supreme Bench during his administration three are Democrats and two are Republicans, so even the most partisan Democrats must admit that he is not bound by any narrow ideas of partisanship."

The popularity of our president will continue to grow. From this time he will have the support of the entire nation, and with such cooperation he will be enabled to do greater and better things which will result in much good for the people in general.

MANY HELP SANTA CLAUS IN HIS WORK

Over $75 in Cash and Many Supplies

Contributed to the Christmas Fund.

COMMITTEE PLANS THE WORK

Contribution of Provisions and Toys

Will be Received at Blish

Building Friday.

On Christmas morning many little children will be made happy and many needy homes will be supplied with baskets well filled with provisions because of the Santa Claus fund. A total of over $75 was contributed by the people of Seymour for this purpose and besides this amount a large amount of provisions and toys have been given to the committee. The manner in which the people responded to the fund is very commendable, and shows that in their own happiness they not forget their neighbors who are suffering from poverty or misfortune.

The committee who has been appointed to take charge of the fund is as follows: Mrs. C. D. Hopewell, chairman, Mrs. B. F. Schneck, Mrs. U. F. Lewis, Mrs. F. J. Voss, Mrs. J. L. Kessler, Mrs. James Stratton, Mrs. W. H. Reynolds, Mrs. J. F. Shiel and Mrs. Alex Love. The committee represents the various churches of the city. They have made arrangements to receive supplies at the Blish building.

The names of about fifty families have been received who are in need of provision and there are also a number of children who must be provided with toys. In order that the money might not be issued except where it is necessary, the committee asks the public to send to the building tomorrow any supplies which they can contribute.

Baskets filled or partly filled with potatoes, chicken, sugar, coffee, soap, bananas, cans of fruit or vegetables will be gladly received. Any one having toys which are not worn too badly can also leave them at the committee rooms and they will be appreciated. A number of such articles have already been contributed.

The Blish Milling Company has notified the committee that they will furnish a sack of flour for each basket sent out. David Dunn will supply the baskets with bread, and the John C. Groub Company will donate two baskets of candy.

MISTAKEN IDENTITY

Texas Prisoner Says He Is Not the Man Wanted.

Rusk, Tex., Dec. 22.—A remarkable criminal case is on trial here on change of venue from Shelby county. For a third time within as many years, William Mitchell is being tried for the murder of James Truitt, which he is alleged to have committed twenty-four years ago. On the two previous trials there were hung juries. Truitt was the husband of Mrs. Julia Truitt Bishop, a well-known southern writer of short stories.

Mitchell escaped and no trace of him was obtained until three years ago, when the man now on trial was arrested in New Mexico and brought back to Texas to answer for the crime. The names of the two men are the same, but the one who is now being tried claims that it is a case of mistaken identity; that he never was acquainted with Truitt and was not in Texas at the time the crime was committed. He presented strong proof at the two previous trials to show that he is not the real Mitchell who is wanted.

Ohio Preacher Goes Up Against an Editor With a Punch.

Zanesville, O., Dec. 22.—The Rev. A. M. Courtenay, pastor of Grace M. E. church, which has the largest congregation in southern Ohio, walked into the office of the Sunday News and after a brief exchange of words with the editor, Ad Ellsperman, slapped him in the face. Right then things started. The editor responded with a punch that floored the minister. Three times the pastor took the count and then he became unconscious. The dispute started over an editorial in which the editor objected to the minister's attitude on the wet and dry question.

BURRELL CASEArticle From Muskogee, (Okla.)
Daily Phoenix.

Under a heading, "Indiana Will Not Get Hugh A. Burrell" the Muskogee Daily Phoenix has the following article regarding the habeas corpus proceedings.

Hugh A. Burrell, ex-president of the Peoples' bank of Brownstown, Indiana, yesterday walked out of Superior Judge McCain's court a free man. The habeas corpus petition filed by his attorneys, Kistler and Haskell, son of Governor Haskell, was sustained by the judge.

The action of Judge McCain in this case, marks the fourth failure on the part of the Indiana parties to secure extradition papers for Burrell, on the charge of forgery and embezzlement in connection with the Peoples' bank which went into the hands of a receiver in 1907.

An appeal in the case will be taken to the state supreme court.

For That Dull Feeling After Eating.

I have used Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets for some time, and can testify that they have done me more good than any tablets I have ever used. My trouble was a heavy dull feeling after eating.—David Freeman, Kempt, Nova Scotia. These tablets strengthen the stomach and improve the digestion. They also regulate the liver and bowels. They are far superior to pills but cost no more. Get a free sample at Andrews-Schwenk Drug Company's drug store and see what a splendid medicine it is.

CORRECT TEMPERATUREDr. J. N. Hurty Says 68 to 70 Degrees About Right for Schools.

Dr. J. N. Hurty, secretary of the State Board of Health, has received a request for information from a schoolhouse janitor in a town in the southern part of the state which the doctor believes should be given to every one employed in that capacity. The janitor asked as to the temperature in the schoolrooms during the winter months, saying he has had difficulty in ascertaining the exact amount of heat required. Dr. Hurty has informed him that a temperature of from 68 to 70 degrees is the proper heat, and that this should be maintained both on very cold and moderate days during the winter. Another question was of the schoolroom thermometer. Dr. Hurty suggests that the instrument be suspended from the ceiling in the middle of the room, six feet above the floor.

The greatest danger from influenza is of its resulting in pneumonia. This can be obviated by using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, as it not only cures influenza, but counteracts any tendency of the disease towards pneumonia. Sold by Andrews-Schwenk Drug Co.

Dr. Hurty is against the "All Day Sucker" and says that children addicted to the "sucker" habit acquire "squirrel mouths" so that their teeth do not meet. This prevents them from masticating their food properly and causes dyspepsia and intestinal disorders early in mature life.

The peculiar properties of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy have been thoroughly tested during epidemics of influenza, and when it was taken in time we have not heard of a single case of pneumonia. Sold by Andrews-Schwenk Drug Co.

MAJOR OF MARINES*Officer Formerly Stationed at Guam In Trouble.

Washington, Dec. 22.—Formal orders for the court martial of Major Henry C. Davis of the marine corps, former commanding officer of the marine guard at Guam, have been made public at the navy department. An officer on duty at the marine barracks at Guam was suspended for three days by the commandant of the naval station for neglect of duty in permitting bugle calls to be sounded in a slovenly manner. The officer requested that the fact of suspension be not entered on his record, which request was approved by Major Davis. In the opinion of the department the facts do not justify the withholding of the suspension from the officer's record, and his letter was returned by an indorsement of the commandant of the marine corps to Major Davis, stating that the attitude of Major Davis savored of insubordination and that the correspondence in the case showed an inexcusable laxity of discipline and disregard of responsibility on the part of Major Davis.

Major Davis then sent a letter to the secretary of the navy which was considered by the department as being disrespectful, insubordinate and intemperate in language and impugning the motives of the commandant of the marine corps. The letter was also regarded as prejudicial to good order and discipline, and it was said also to contain a statement which was considered untrue.

Osteopathy

IS NATURE'S AID TO HEALTH AND APPEALS TO REASON.

It is not a cureall, but it adds years to the life and life to the years of chronic sufferers, who have tried other methods without success. If you are rheumatic, neuralgic, dyspeptic, paralytic, asthmatic, can't eat, can't sleep, all fagged out without exertion, fractious and fly to pieces, fear a nervous collapse, something is seriously clogging the wheels of life. The longer you try to work while the body machinery is out of gear, the greater will be the damage it suffers.

The Human Body a Working Machine.

No defective machine can turn out good work. Every day that an "unclean" watch, auto, or any other machine is compelled to run, wears seriously its vital parts and saps its vitality.

Man of today is as near a machine as he probably ever can become, and still exist. To keep him in perfect "running order" he has to be treated as such. Now, if your watch or auto had slipped a cog, or was "clogged up" with foreign matter threatening its very existence unless removed, would you apply acid or dope to rid it of foreign matter or to adjust its parts?

As With Auto and Watch

so with the human body; it gets out of running order through the process of life and needs repairing. It has been abundantly demonstrated in this community that health depends upon the human machine being kept in good mechanical order. Adjustment of the human body is the particular and special work of the

SPAUNHURST OSTEOPATHIC PHYSICIANS.

That they are expert body machinists, know what to do and how to correctly fix what is mechanically wrong with the body structure is evidenced by kindly expressions of those who have given their treatment a fair trial. Ask them about it.

A cinder gets in your eye, you poultice it and quell the inflammation, but the cinder will bring it back. Lift up the lid and remove the cause—the cinder—and the trouble will remedy itself. Just so it is when you are sick, before you can be well the cause must be found and removed. Which will you choose.

OSTEOPATHY TO REMOVE THE CAUSE.

They have earned and are entitled to the liberal patronage accorded them during their two years' practice. First National Bank Building, Seymour every Monday, Wednesday and Friday. Such are their credentials. They give a little more satisfaction than is expected and make good every promise. They do not claim to perform miracles. Aid nature to health—that's all. Go and see.

PREPARING BILL

Providing for the Amendment and Improvement of Road Laws.

Many bills having for their object the amendment of the Indiana road laws will be presented to the next legislature. A committee from the Indiana Good Roads Association are now working on the draft of a bill which will embrace the following general points:

A state highway committee and its powers; state aid in constructing and maintaining roads; special taxes on vehicles; use of convict labor, and amendments to present statutes. These ideas were selected by the general committee after a long discussion, as embracing the fundamentals of needed legislation for relief in road matters in the state.

REBELS CALL ON PEOPLE TO RISE

Recent Victory Gives Mexican Insurrectos Confidence.

FEDERAL FORCES FARE BADLY

It Now Seems That the Repulse of Diaz's Troops at Mal Paso Was Worse Than Was at First Reported, and Rebels Find That Their Cause Has Gained Thereby a Decided Impetus—Navarro Still Bottled Up.

El Paso, Tex., Dec. 22.—Even after forty-two wounded had been brought into Chihuahua and the federalists had admitted the death of twenty-one, a survey of the situation following the repulse of the Mexican troops in Mal Paso, west of Chihuahua shows that the battle was a greater victory for the insurgents than believed. It now develops that about thirty were wounded who were not brought on the train to Chihuahua, but are held in camp at Bustillos, to which point the federalists were forced to retreat after the ambush. It also develops that the federalists, when they retreated, left many of their wounded and dead on the battlefield, and that it was only after the rebels had left that the wounded and dead were picked up from where they fell.

The victory of the rebels has given great impetus to their cause, and Americans who have all along expressed confidence in the ability of Mexico to end the rebellion in a few days, now shake their heads doubtfully.

The railroad is completely out of business, and the insurgents hold the mountain passes. General Navarro is still at Pedernales, without food supplies and his condition appears serious. The federalists have one advantage, however—they have field guns which they can bring up from the rear and by sheer force of numbers, after many more reinforcements are moved into the state from Mexico City, they may be able to beat back the rebels, but this will only run them further into the mountains. The infested country is almost impenetrable. The insurgents are all good shots and good riders. They are accustomed to roughing it and know the hills perfectly, while the soldiers are unaccustomed to such campaigns and are in ignorance of the topography of the region.

Pasquale Orozco, the chief of arms of the insurgents, has issued a proclamation calling on all patriots to rise and join the rebels. He declares that they have not yet lost a battle, and that they have demonstrated that it is possible to cope with the Mexican army, and calls on all patriotic men to aid.

Two trainloads of troops carrying field pieces and ample ammunition en route from Mexico City to Chihuahua, will reach Chihuahua some time Saturday, when they will be sent overland in the direction of Pedernales to relieve General Navarro. The troops will act as a convoy for supplies for the army now bottled up and completely surrounded by rebels.

A VALUABLE FIND

Pompeian Workmen Unearth Gruesome Reminder of Great Disaster.

Rome, Dec. 22.—At Pompeii workmen who were digging for the foundation of a new building outside the area of the buried city, found the body of a woman which had been petrified. Both the hands were full of jewels. Evidently the woman fled from the eruption that overwhelmed Pompeii, carrying her valuables, and was buried in the downpour. The jewels are excellently preserved, they having been protected from the ashes and lava by the body. They consist of bracelets, necklaces, rings, amulets, studded with gems, and a pair of earrings which are unique. They may be the most valuable specimens of ancient jewelry ever discovered. Each earring contains twenty-one perfect pearls, set in gold, in imitation of a bunch of grapes.

Not Guilty the Verdict.

Eddyville, Ky., Dec. 22.—Not guilty was the verdict returned by the jury in the so-called rider trial here, in which Roy Merrick, Spunk Creek, Fraud Murphy and Vilas Hutchell were charged with the murder of Axiom Cooper last summer.

My attention was attracted to Foley's Kidney Remedy and I am glad to say after using this wonderful medicine I am no longer bothered in any way by my old enemy lumbago." A. J. Pellens.

The Associated Charities organization at Columbus will start a free employment bureau and will try to find work this winter for men and women who want it and are out of employment. The organization has found in the past that more women than men apply for work in the winter, many of them asking for washing, scrubbing and housework.

Now, Have You Forgotten Anybody?

Miss Lola Knost, of Brownstown, was here Wednesday evening returning home from the State Normal at Terre Haute. While in the city she was the guest of Prof. and Mrs. J. A. Linke.

Start winter in a healthy condition; be free from disease. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea, the most reliable preventative. Nothing so sure to keep you well all winter and save doctor's bills. Andrews-Schwenk Drug Co.

Prof. J. A. Linke, superintendent of the schools, went to Indianapolis this morning to attend the meeting of the State Teachers' Association.

Temporary Heat Quickly

Did you ever stop to think of the many ways in which a perfect oil heater is of value? If you want to sleep with your window open in winter, you can get sufficient heat from an oil heater while you undress at night, and then turn it off. Apply a match in the morning, when you get out of bed, and you have heat while you dress.

Those who have to eat an early breakfast before the stove is radiating heat can get immediate warmth from an oil heater, and then turn it off.

The girl who practices on the piano in a cold room in the morning can have warmth from an oil heater while she plays, and then turn it off.

The member of the family who has to walk the floor on a cold winter's night with a restless baby can get temporary heat with an oil heater, and then turn it off. The is invaluable in its capacity of quickly giving heat. Apply a match and it is immediately at work. It will burn for nine hours without refilling. It is safe, smokeless and odorless. It has a damper top and a cool handle. An indicator always shows the amount of oil in the font.

It has an automatic-locking flame spreader which prevents the wick from being turned high enough to smoke, and is easy to remove and drop back so that the wick can be cleaned in an instant.

The burner body or gallery cannot become wedged, and can be quickly unscrewed for reworking. Finished in Japan or nickel, strong, durable, well-made, built for service, and yet light and ornamental.
